Morning Kathy,

Alexis got back to me after work hours that she finished her comments/suggested edits for the option papers. Please note that I am going to be working as diligently as I can to turn this around to you but before I got too deep into the editing, I wanted to send you a copy of Simma's and Alexis edits so we have something to refer back to.

I am going to shoot to have the options papers too you this afternoon. Hopefully sooner. I spoke with Ruth and told her I should be able to get her the tables today as well since Alexis and Simma seemed to be okay with the MOA options the work group chose.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Stephanie
